Posted by g1_m2001 - 2007/10/15 18:52

I know a crook present in dombivili He is owner of Maruti Motors near Ramchandra Talkies in dombivili east which had a business in re-sale of vehiches, which he has smartly closed down, he ows lakhs of rupess to many of dombivilians, he is very smart & good enough to sweetly talk and postpone all the money to return back.

I feel very much amused to know as to no one has come forward against him, as i have taken a step forward to fight against his injustice, i would apreciate if i get a sincer support of all the affected Dombivlikar
